Right Management Promotes Paul Straub To Senior Vice President, Global Finance

March 19, 2007

Philadelphia - March 19, 2007 - Paul Straub has been promoted to Senior Vice President, Global Finance for Right Management, the world's leading provider of integrated consulting solutions across the employment lifecycle.

In his previous role as Senior Vice President of Finance and Operations for the Americas, Straub directed all financial affairs and supported the daily business operations of the 114 locations within the Americas Group. He was successful in implementing multi-million dollar cost savings plan from 2004 to 2006, and provided management oversight to Right Management's home-based transition model.

Prior to the Americas role, Straub was Right Management's Senior Vice President and Corporate Controller. Within this position, Straub was responsible for the execution and integration of numerous acquisitions, including the largest deal in the history of Right Management of a firm with revenues over $100 million and operations in 13 countries. Additionally, he directed the company's adherence to accounting policies and procedures during a period of record revenue and profit growth.

Straub received his Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the University of Delaware.
