Henryk Krajewski Joins Right Management Canada As National Practice Leader For Consulting Services

October 23, 2007

TORONTO, Oct 23, 2007 (Canada NewsWire via COMTEX News Network) -- Henryk Krajewski has been named Vice President and National Practice Leader, Consulting Services, for Right Management Canada. Right Management is a wholly owned subsidiary of Manpower Inc.

In his position, Krajewski will lead Right Management Canada's organizational consulting practice and strengthen the company's brand strategy. He will report to Bram Lowsky, Senior Vice President and General Manager of Right Management Canada.

"Henryk will work with the Right Management Canada leadership team and individual markets to ensure world-class delivery solutions, strong customer satisfaction, and increase the company's visibility as a leading provider of human capital solutions," Lowsky said.

Krajewski has expertise in succession planning, executive assessment and development, and executive coaching. He is experienced in helping organizations chart their vision and human capital strategy, and in developing broad, organizational effectiveness interventions.

Krajewski has also been a leading researcher in the area of executive assessment and development, publishing a variety of articles exploring how best to predict performance in top executives, and how best to develop their talent.

Krajewski holds a Master's degree and a Ph.D. in Industrial/Organizational Psychology from the University of Western Ontario.
