Manpower Inc. Recognized as Largest Global Vendor-Neutral Managed Service Provider in Annual Competitive Landscape Report

October 19, 2010

MILWAUKEE, Oct 19, 2010 /PRNewswire via COMTEX News Network/ -- Manpower Inc. has been recognized as the largest global vendor-neutral managed service provider (MSP) in Staffing Industry Analysts 2010 Vendor Management System (VMS) and Managed Service Provider Supplier Competitive Landscape Report. Manpower/TAPFIN, Manpower's North American organization MSP, was also ranked the second largest global hybrid provider. The report provides the most detailed and comprehensive insight into the experience, positioning and capabilities of VMS and MSP suppliers and serves as a resource for contingent workforce program owners, especially during the RFP and supplier selection process.

This recognition follows the acquisition of TAPFIN by Manpower Inc. earlier this year, through which Manpower Inc. combined Manpower Business Solutions and TAPFIN to form the leading provider of contingent workforce management solutions. Prior to the acquisition, TAPFIN was one of the largest MSPs in North America and a market leader in establishing best practices and process excellence for workforce management. Together, the combined entity boasts offices in 82 countries with more than $3.7 billion in managed spend worldwide.

"We have worked diligently to create the most effective contingent workforce management solution in the market, one that brings tremendous value and efficiency to our clients," said Kip Wright, vice president and general manager of TAPFIN, a Manpower company. "This prominent industry ranking provides great validation as we strive to offer industry leading innovation, quality and expertise across all of our workforce solutions."

In addition to Manpower/TAPFIN's overall global ranking, the industry report also recognized Manpower in the following areas:

- Largest in MSP market share in Eastern Europe, the Middle East, Central America, and South America
- Third largest in MSP market share in Western Europe
- Largest number of MSP programs in Asia-Pacific
- Second largest MSP in total number of MSP programs
