Effective 10 January 2011, Manpower Inc. will create two regions - Northern and Southern Europe. Francoise Gri will take on the responsibility of running Southern Europe in addition to her current role as President of Manpower France, the company's biggest single market. Hans Leentjes, who currently leads EMEA's central region, is promoted to Executive Vice President, President Northern Europe.

"Our new organizational structure in this part of the world will help us create more speed, efficiency and collaboration, which is critical for us to achieve our objectives now and in the future," said Jeff Joerres, Manpower Inc. Chairman and CEO. "We are at a natural point where it makes the most sense to optimize our growth potential by creating Northern and Southern Europe regions."

- Francoise Gri becomes Executive Vice President, President of Southern Europe.
- Hans Leentjes becomes Executive Vice President, President of Northern Europe and joins Manpower Inc.'s Executive Management Team.
