ManpowerGroup Offers Practical Solutions to Help U.S. Businesses Adapt to Technological Disruption at 14th Annual Roundtable Event

Diverse suppliers from across the U.S. attend best-in-class event to network with peers and learn and grow as business owners

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 13, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- ManpowerGroup's (NYSE: MAN) 14th Annual Supplier Diversity Roundtable took place Oct. 3-4 in Milwaukee with attendees from more than 175 minority, veteran, LGBT, small and women-owned staffing and procurement businesses.

ManpowerGroup

Each year, ManpowerGroup honors its many long-standing mutually beneficial relationships with diverse partners, and leaders share expertise on critical issues that impact suppliers. This year's event focused on technical transformation and included discussions on artificial intelligence, big data and automation. As more than two-thirds of attendees said they anticipate automation to impact their revenue this year, the discussion focused on strategies and solutions to help businesses adapt.

"We work with 30,000 employers in North America, both large and small. We see how technology is accelerating change and we provide practical solutions to help employers adapt their workforce, supporting them to skill up and stay relevant," said Darryl Green, President & Chief Operating Officer of ManpowerGroup. "At this event we recognize the contribution and partnership of our diverse suppliers, to build relationships, share ideas and discuss how technology and automation will impact the future of work."

ManpowerGroup also hosted a Supplier Excellence Award dinner to recognize suppliers with exceptional performance and overall partnership. The 2016 ManpowerGroup Supplier Excellence Award honorees are:

- | Spruce
- | Aspire
- | Multivision
- | US Tech Solutions
- | Techlink Systems
- | ATR International
- | Collabera
- | OLSA Resources
- | Cor-Tech
- | Victory Personnel
- | Vector International

For the third year, ManpowerGroup colleagues were recognized with the company's prestigious Circle of Excellence Awards for championing supplier diversity within the company. This year's awards were given to:

- | Nancy Pencovich, Manpower
- | Muriel Sportelli, Experis
- | Sabrina Robins, TAPFIN
- | Jen Zimmerman, Sourcing

The 2016 President's Award was given to Paula Ratliff, Vice President & General Manager of Global Sales, for her support, commitment, leadership and mentoring of diverse suppliers.

"Diversity of people brings diversity of thought, which ultimately leads to better business decisions," Ratliff said. "Working with our diverse supplier partners for the past 12 years is an honor and I'm very humbled to receive this recognition."

The Supplier Diversity Roundtable is a best-in-class event for attendees to strengthen their relationships with ManpowerGroup leaders, network with peers, and learn and grow as business owners.
