ManpowerGroup Solutions' Managed Service Provider, TAPFIN, Rated 10-Out of-10 By Clients According to Staffing Industry Analysts' Report

SIA adds customer feedback to scoring system and ManpowerGroup achieves highest marks in customer satisfaction

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 13, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- ManpowerGroup Solutions' TAPFIN, the Managed Service Provider (MSP) expert within ManpowerGroup (NYSE: MAN), has received top marks from Staffing Industry Analysts (SIA) and from clients for their technology, analytics and overall MSP capabilities.

TAPFIN received a 10 out of 10 ranking for overall Client Service Quality Satisfaction in SIA's 2017 report, which includes customer feedback for the first time ever. TAPFIN also received the highest recognition of Established Business across all seven categories including Overall MSP Service Capability, Core MSP Service, Multi-Region & Global capabilities, Large-, Medium- and Small-Sized Programs.

"We're honored to receive such high accolades from not only SIA's comprehensive report, but more importantly from our valued clients," says Jamiel Saliba, Vice President/General Manager, TAPFIN Global. "As digitization transforms organizations, relationships are more critical than ever and we are proud of our ability to develop strong connections with both clients and candidates with our high tech and high touch approach."

"TAPFIN's impressive marks across the board really speak to the high level of technological support they created within analytics and benchmarking," says Elizabeth Rennie, Global Workforce Solutions Research Director, SIA. "The proprietary technologies they have implemented have strengthened their capabilities globally."
