Manpower Inc. Names Owen Sullivan as CEO of Jefferson Wells International

MILWAUKEE, April 28 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Manpower Inc. (NYSE: MAN) has named Owen Sullivan as Chief Executive Officer of Jefferson Wells International, Inc. -- a role that he begins on April 28, 2003.

"Owen's extensive experience in the financial services industry, particularly in the areas of sales and marketing, is a great fit to lead Jefferson Wells through the next phase of development," said Jeffrey A. Joerres, Chairman & CEO of Manpower Inc. "Due to the unique nature of its business model, Jefferson Wells is well positioned to help companies with initiatives pertaining to the independence of the internal audit function, and in particular, in their efforts to fulfill all of the responsibilities that are now required under Section 404 of the new Sarbanes-Oxley Act," he added.

Sullivan replaces Don Bobo, who is retiring, but will remain with the company for a short period of time to assist in the leadership transition.

Sullivan previously served as President of the Financial Services Group of Metavante Corporation, as well as President of Metavante's Enterprise Solutions Group. Most recently, he has worked as a management consultant with several venture capitalists and equity groups, building strategic plans and evaluating acquisition opportunities.

Manpower Inc. acquired Jefferson Wells International, Inc. in April of 2001.
