Survey says: ManpowerGroup a Most Admired Company Across the Globe

World's workforce expert named one of FORTUNE's "World's Most Admired Companies" for 13th consecutive year

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 19, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- ManpowerGroup (NYSE: MAN), the world's workforce expert, was named today as one of FORTUNE's 2016 "World's Most Admired Companies." This is the 13th consecutive year ManpowerGroup has been recognized.

ManpowerGroup™

The "Most Admired" list is the definitive report card on corporate reputations. Rankings are based on nine key attributes of reputation, from global competitiveness to long-term investment. ManpowerGroup scored highest in categories including Social Responsibility, Innovation, Use of Corporate Assets, Financial Soundness and Quality of Products/Services.

"It is an honor to once again be included on this prestigious list from FORTUNE," said Jonas Prising, Chairman & CEO, ManpowerGroup. "We're proud to be consistently recognized as both ethical and admired on this list and others. The recognition is thanks to the commitment of our 27,000 employees worldwide who are dedicated to connecting more than three and a half million people to meaningful work every year, and I thank them all for that."

The complete list of the World's Most Admired Companies will appear in FORTUNE's March issue, from February 22. For more information, visit www.fortune.com/worlds-most-admired-companies.
